"From the Pastor"

"...Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Luke 18:18.

An old man was dying. He related his consistent compromise with life. In college he put off a personal decision about the Christian faith because he said he did not have all the facts. After college he became engulfed in personal advancement in business. Then, when he was married and had a family, he attended church because it was good for the family, but Christ meant little to him as a Person. Now his family is raised and he was retired. As he looked back over his life, he realized that he had never done anything which would make the world different because he had lived.

This Sunday, May 3rd, we have six young men and women making a decision to live for Christ. That means they are making a decision to make a difference in this world. Indeed they will keep eternal and abundant life within them as they keep Christ their Lord before their eyes. They will make a difference in this world. Congratulations: Joseph Hager, Geoffrey Lewis, Taylor Medlin, Joshua Parrett, Macie Popik, and Garrett Rayney. God has chosen you to help build the kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven. What an awesome responsibility! What a fantastic adventure! What a joyful life!

Your friend and Pastor, Greg King

OFFERING OF LETTERS MAY 17th

Bread for the Worlds Offering of Letters at our church is approaching!

Bread for the World (BFW) is a collective Christian voice urging our nation's decision makers to end hunger at home and abroad. By changing policies, programs, and conditions that allow hunger and poverty to exist, we provide help and opportunity far beyond the communities where we live.

God's grace in Jesus Christ moves us to help our neighbors, whether they live in the next house, the next state, or the next continent. Food is a basic need, and it is unjust that so many people must go without enough to eat. We can end hunger in our time. Everyone, including our government, must do their part. With the stroke of a pen, policies are made that redirect millions of dollars and affect millions of lives. By making our voices heard in Congress, we make our nation's laws more fair and compassionate to people in need.

Each year BFW invites churches and groups across the country to take up a nationwide Offering of Letters to Congress on an issue that is important to hungry people. Here at our church, we have participated in many Offering of Letters and our letters have made a difference! A few examples of past Offering of Letters' results: strengthening of US nutrition programs; in sub-Saharan Africa projects were successful in improving agriculture, clean water, health and education; establishing the Millennium Challenge Account, a program aimed at reducing poverty and fighting corruption in the world's poorest nations.

On May 17th our church will be participating in Bread for the World's 2009 Offering of Letters. We are urging Congress to reform U.S. foreign assistance so it does a better job using our nation's resources to reduce hunger and poverty in our world.

More details will follow in next week's Chimes. - Connie Sink, Social Action Committee

"Take Me Out To The Ball Game"

The Recreation Committee has planned a family outing to the, Saturday, May 30, Dayton Dragon's ball game. We will eat a light meal at the church (5 PM) before we leave for the evening game. The ticket cost is $14.00/person. Tickets are limited, so it is first come-first serve. Please sign-up as soon as possible. Please contact Jamie Meldin if you have any questions at 252-4657.

"New Women's Bible Study"

Due to good participation and great fellowship in the women's Bible study that was just completed, the women were anxious to begin another study. So, beginning June 1, a new Bible study series will begin and continue each Monday evening for the next nine weeks. Don't let the length of the series keep you from participating; just come when you can. The new study will be based on the book "What's So Amazing About Grace," by Philip Yancey, and will be led by Joyce Kelley and Jane Simmons. More information will be coming soon regarding the price for a copy of the softcover book, and a sign-up sheet will be posted on the bulletin board so we will know how many books to order.

"Twice the Joy & Excitement!"

Congratulations go to proud parents, Leslie & Philip Freytag, and grandparents, Jerry & Helen Hager, upon the birth of twin girls, Samantha Grace and Elizabeth Lorraine on Thursday, April 23rd, in Columbus, Ohio. We rejoice in the Hope God gives us in sharing in these new lives. - May God's blessings be with this new family.

"Thank You"

Dear Friends,
The first day of spring has come again and we have entered the season of hope. We want you to fully realize that your continued support truly does give hope to all of us here at the House of Bread: guests, volunteers and staff. Without your help we would not be able to continue to provide nourishment to the hungry who show up at our door each and every day. Thank you for your continued, generous support. Sincerely, Bill Evans, Executive Director

Greenmont Church,
On behalf of the YWCA of Dayton I would like to thank you for your generous gift designated to the Battered Women's Shelter. We deeply appreciated your support. Sincerely, Erma Link, YWCA

WINGS committee members are happy to see many of you have registered to attend the 4th annual, "All Daughter's Brunch" to be held in just a little over one week! Please keep in mind the last Sunday to register is this Sunday, May 3rd (already!). It's important to register as soon as possible so we can let the caterer know how many to prepare for. We're really looking forward to celebrating, singing and enjoying a meal with everyone! There is a sign-up sheet posted on the WINGS bulletin board, also Diane Knowlton and Loretta Liesch will be in the Gathering Place following 2nd service to accept your payment. Please make checks payable to GOPCC with a notation on the bottom to "WINGS." The brunch cost is $14.00 for adults, $4.00 for children under 10. Included with the program will be; several nice door prizes, a delicious brunch, your picture with your loved one, and a special activity for the youth.

We're very excited about the program and believe you'll be delighted with the presentation from authors, Jerri Lawrence & Kay

Williams who completed the novel, One Last Dance started by their father, Mardo Williams, a journalist for 44 years. The book has received numerous excellent reviews and is the winner of the 2006 Independent Publisher Book Award and a finalist for the National Readers' Choice Award. Several WINGS officers have read the book and enjoyed its' important message about perseverance and living life to its fullest, never giving up no matter what one's age! Our brunch theme this year is, "Here for You" in honor of our own mothers, grandmothers, and so many of the other women who have played an important role in our lives as they have been there for us as we have grown. Please join us in celebrating and thanking God for the many blessings He has given us through our mothers. Also, if you want to "adopt" a mother or daughter for the day, what an honor that would be for someone you care about! In Christ, Nikki Taylor, WINGS President
