Someone asked me, "Now that June has come, school is out and summer has begun, Are you and the church going to take a vacation?"

The next two weekends I will be traveling to two different, but important events. The weekend of June 11th, I'll be at the UCC Ohio Conference meeting. I will be attending workshops on evangelism and working with leadership from the author, Martha Reese, who has written a series of books on evangelism for mainline church. The first book is entitled, Unbinding the Gospel, which several members from our congregation will be engaged in studying this summer. My hope is to return better equipped to teach this series to our congregation and for all of us to grow more deeply in our spiritual lives.

The next weekend I will be traveling with Sherri Parrett and a couple of other adults and fourteen other youth to Defiance College for the Great Lakes Regional youth Event. Hundreds of UCC youth will gather together for the weekend for fellowship, recreation and spiritual growth and development. The theme for the weekend is "Challenges, Choices, and Consequences," very important topics for our youth today who are so connected to so many more options and choices in their lives than my generation was as a teen.

Our church is not taking a June vacation. Vacation Bible School's, "Joseph in Egypt," under the direction of Patti King, Lisa Ybarbo, the Christian Education chairperson and Barbra LeBlanc the Vice Chairperson is winding up and is almost ready to go for June 28th. The Summer Lunch program is going to begin June 14th. Looking for something to do? Maybe as a family, join us in helping and participating in these summer programs. Share the joy of the Lord and be touched by the love of God.

Also, let us all remember as we take our vacations this summer, please keep up our tithes and pledges to our church. Your participation in GOPCC's ministries is important and valued to our church membership and to our community.

Your pastor and friend, Greg King

Bible Readings for the Coming Weeks are:

June 13—Revelation 2:8-11

June 20 Revelation 2:12-17

June 27—Revelation 2:18-29

Dear Friends of Pine Mountain,

Greetings! Thank you so much for your recent donation to Pine Mountain Settlement School. With your help, we continue our mission of providing cultural and environmental education and being a source for community service.

Two local elementary classes are visiting us today as our final school group of the year. Our summer season will kickoff with a family reunion and wedding. Followed by forest and historic preservation workshops and day camps and college retreats, and more reunions and weddings.

Thank you again and come visit us when you're in the area! - Debra Callahan

Dear GOPCC,

I was pleased to receive your gift of $200 in May. The generosity of the Conference and its member congregations is vital to our mission. Thank You!

Crossroad celebrates 127 years of service in 2010. Founded as an orphanage in 1883, today we provide treatment for children who are suffering from severe emotional difficulties, often a result of abuse and neglect. Together we create promising futures for children.

God bless You All, Kyle Zanker, Chief Development Officer

Dear Members of GOPCC,

Fish Southeast Food Pantry thanks you for the $100 donation. We appreciate your support and partnership in working in this program. Sincerely, Janet Harris, pantry Coordinator

Dear church members,

Thank you for your contribution of $350 to the YWCA Battered Women's Shelter.

Your investment allows us to provide shelter, counseling, comfort and hope to women and children in our community affected by domestic violence. It enables us to offer guidance and the tools necessary for our clients to rebuild their lives and break away from the behaviors that contributed to their turbulent lives.

Again, we appreciate your generous support. - Karen Dempsey Volke
Director of Development & Relations

Dear GOPCC,

Thank you for your $385 gift to Bread for the World. The financial support will help Bread for the World prepare for our annual Lobby Day on Tues., June 15, when hundreds of individuals will visit congressional offices on behalf of legislation that benefits hungry people.

Thank you again for your support.

- Sincerely, David Beckmann, President.

Dear Members of Greenmont Church,

I first want to say that I am very excited to present to your congregation on June 13th. I also want to add that it doesn't seem to matter how many other churches I attend, or how far away I find myself, I am happy to say that I always consider Greenmont Oak Park Community church my home. I have grown up in that church, from first attending the Preschool program, to later becoming part of the Greenmont's youth group, to even later leading Greenmont's youth group.

At the moment the Lord has me leading a ministry called "Young Life" on Long Island, NY. It's a high school outreach, that rather than base itself in a church actually goes to the high schools of the area and presents the message of Christ to high school students by walking with them on their grounds.

Children today face so many pressures and live in a world of uncertainty. The statistics concerning today's teenagers are shocking and unfortunately the youth of Long Island struggle greatly with the temptations of a very worldly culture. Drug use, eating disorders, and suicide are all on the rise on Long Island, while the numbers of teenagers attending church has dropped significantly. The statistics show that between 70—80% of teenagers no longer attend church regularly. This is why "Young Life" is so important to a community. Because we actually go out to where the kids are and teach them through our lives the values of Christ.

I look forward to presenting the work I have been doing in the Lord lately to the people of Greenmont-Oak Park Community church, and I hope to see all of you very soon.

In Him, Joseph Anderson

Joe will be speaking to us at the June 13th—10:45 service.

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for the cards, visits, flowers and most of all your prayers. I am sure they had a great part in my good recovery from what could have been a nasty fall.

I am looking forward to joining you at church in the near future.

In God's Love,

God Touches Lives

& We Outreach

Our GOPCC Neighbor-to-Neighbor Food Pantry meets our community neighbors three times a week, 50 weeks of the year.

In May we assisted 127 families with groceries. Families of size one to ten members give thanks for our help.

Some families share that they daily lift up our church and the volunteers in prayer for the caring work that we do. They ask God to be present in our work and our lives. Take time to feel the power of these prayers, so humbly given up for us.

Your support of this ministry is greatly appreciated not only by the families, but also the volunteers who are in turn fed by the sharing of God's presence in our lives with our neighbors. - Mission Outreach
