I went to bed last night with the song, "Jesus Loves Me This I Know," on my mind, which the choir sang as one of their anthems for Choir Sunday. The song, "O Wondrous Love," another anthem the choir sang for Choir Sunday, followed me from my dreamy state to full consciousness, as I woke up this morning. And I can still feel it echoing in the subconscious of my being.

The choir sang three of their favorite anthems yesterday as they celebrated their 2010-2011 season with us. I wish they would have sung a few more. Rob Duerr and our choir gave us beautiful anthems that enriched our worship drawing our awareness to the many attributes of God and God's love and sacrifice. They sang songs that captured the human spirit, its struggles of a wondering heart and its victory and glory as we stand on the foundation of faith in God. Thank you for your dedication throughout the year.

Blessings in Christ's love, Pastor Greg

I received a call last week inviting me (and us) to host a duo, Richard Cring and Janet Clazzy, known as Spirited, for a special event on Tuesday, June, 21st at 7 PM. The only requirement is that we "pass the plate" and let them have a book table. Spirited is a spiritual commentary laced with wit and music blending the finest of all the American styles, and insights on creativity featuring Janet Clazzy on oboe and the WX-5 wind machine, a horn touting the sounds of over 250 instruments. The event will last just under an hour. It was an offer I could not refuse. Below is a quote from a local pastor in the Miami Valley:

"Jonathan and Janet's visit to Franklin First UMC on May 18th was one of the more memorable experiences in my life. Jonathan's obvious love for people and love of the Lord combined with his delightful - and insightful - sense of humor provided observations of God and life that touched the hearts of all of us who heard them. The beauty and depth of the music from Jonathan and Janet that framed the times of monologue warmed my soul. They are both truly people of grace. I extended Jonathan and Janet a standing invitation to return to Franklin Ohio and I hope they are able to take me up on it. They certainly made this little piece of the world a better place than it was before they touched it. Thank you for introducing them to us and please accept my prayers and best wishes for the ministry they fulfill. Blessings to you all. Bryan Lauzau, Pastor, Franklin First United Methodist Church, Franklin, OH."

Please mark this date, Tuesday, June 21, at 7 PM, on your calendar for an hour of gospel message with humor and music. Blessings, Pastor Greg

Mother's Day Thank You

The WINGS officers want to thank everyone who attended the fifth annual Mother's Day celebration on May 7, 2011 in the Donut Room at GOPCC.

Forty-one ladies were in attendance and enjoyed a dinner catered by Mama diSalvo's Italian Restaurant with Cheesecake Factory cheesecake for dessert. Joyce Greenwood presented a wonderful Mother's Day Devotion and Diana Knowlton had a program called "What's in your Purse?". Paula Geswein's fun game introduced each lady while asking the question "What is the most important thing in your purse?" Sue Smitley sang a beautiful song entitled "Thank You" and quite a few ladies went home with a door prize presented by Toni Bailey.

This event is one of the most popular of the many things we do and we look forward to many more years of celebrating all the different types of mothers that there are in our world. As always, your support is so very much appreciated.

"The Ladies of the Club"

WINGS is pleased to introduce our new book club. Please join us as we read three new books during the summer months of June, July and August.

On the last Monday of each month we will get together for a light supper and discussion of the book. That night we will also select our book for the next month.

In June the selected book will be "The Heart Mender" by Andy Andrews. This book is a fiction work based on a true story and will be a study in forgiveness. It can be purchased at Books & Co. for a price of about $12.00 or we can order it for you on Amazon.com for $10.87. The last day to sign up will be after church on Sunday, May 29 and we will need payment for the book at that time for the Amazon.com order to be placed the following day. If you have any questions, please contact Diana Knowlton at 938-5246. Here's to a summer of great Reading!
