Dear GOPCC(UCC) Family and Friends,

Five years ago I went through a difficult period. My 32-year marriage was in ruins. For most of the time I simply wanted to stare at the ceiling. I had no interest in physical activity. The family physician urged me to get active. So I started to walk the beach. The beach and some good friends brought me back to sanity.

In order to pay the mortgage, I took in renters. One of them, Steve, was a cyclist. It never crossed my mind that I will be able to ride more than 5 miles on a bicycle. With the encouragement of my friend I bought a bicycle. Then I met Cindy - who already had a bicycle. So I said: "Let the fun begin!"

Now I live in Ohio, where the slogan is: "So much to Discover!" With Summer fast approaching, a couple of us will be riding our bicycles.

"A couple of us" refers to an interest group of GOPCC. Yes! - we have a group of people who ride bicycles. And GOPCC is bringing us together!

There are many people in this congregation with different interests. You are invited to put your name on the existing lists on the notice board across from the church office. Or start a new group if you wish! Invite non-church members to participate! They might be our guests in the future. By that time they will already know a couple of people. All we then need to do is to keep them here!

Guests become friends. Friends become members. Members become Family.

Until next time - Enjoy the Summer!

Gabe.
