Watercolor Art Show

We are fortunate to have the watercolor students from the Rosewood Art Center of Kettering display their paintings in our Hilty Room. Many of these students have been studying with Leonard Williams for several years. You are invited to view these lovely paintings. They will be on display until May 2. The students that are taking part in this art show are: Mary Foreman, Kevin Heller, Linda Leas, Carol Edsall, Heike Husdon, Pasko Evanoff, Ruth Fulmer and their teacher, Leonard Williams. We appreciate these artists sharing their talents with us.

Earth Day

As God calls us to care for his creation, earth, we celebrate the annual event on Saturday, April 22nd this year. The website: metroparks.org/adopt has a complete listing of all the events being offered in the greater Dayton area this year, with maps and all the details. They all run 9 A.M. to 11:30. A free t-shirt is included, as is a free lunch at riverscape, at 229 East Monument street downtown from 11:30 till 1:00, if you choose to do that too. Activities include picking up litter along rivers and streams and removing invasive plants at various parks. You may go by yourself or get a group and sign up so you can all work together. Trash bags and gloves are provided, or you may take a favorite pair of your own gloves. Wear sturdy shoes or boots and dress for the weather. Make new friends and/or volunteer with current friends. This is another opportunity to keep the "community" in Greenmont-Oak Park Community Church.

Dear Greenmont– Oak Park Church,

We are very thankful for your $244.50 donation to the YWCA Dayton. Your donation will allow the YWCA Dayton to continue to provide shelter, counsel, comfort, and hope to women, teens, and children in our community who have been affected by domestic or dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and /or loss of home. Your support and kinds significantly impacts our ability to meet the needs of those we serve and contributes to helping women create a better life for themselves, their children, and our overall community.

Sincerely, Marissa Buckles

National Volunteer Week

April 23-29th

I want to recognize all those from our church family who volunteer not only here at the church but are also active volunteers in our community.

From event set-up/clean up to greeting, ushering, meal-kitchen service, teaching, communion help, choir, lay leading, mailings, gardening, mowing, praying, committee participation, supporting missions local and global, visiting shut-ins, fixing building issues, VBS volunteering, you are busy– busy people.

I am privileged and in awe as I witness all the ways YOU ARE IN SERVICE TO OTHERS here in our church, and that is just the tip of the iceberg of how you give of yourselves in the community.

I know we have hospital volunteers, air force museum volunteer, service club/group volunteers, pantry/ food service volunteers, SISCA volunteers, cycling club volunteer, parks volunteers, and many more.

WE GIVE A BIG THANK YOU TO

ALL OUR VOLUNTEERS

YOU ARE GREAT,

the heartbeat of our church!!!

- Nova Kigar, church office

"May your Spirit strengthen us; so that we will be: strong in faith, discerning in proclamation, courageous in witness, persistent in good deeds."

Lord, we thank you for the direction, strength, and service opportunities you provide to us. Open our hearts and minds and spirits to do Your will in all we do. Help us reflect You, Jesus, in word and action wherever you send us. Amen.
